INSURANCE IN YOUR SUPER
Money when it matters most

The information in this document forms part of the AustralianSuper Standard PDS for the Public Sector System of Superannuation (ASPS) for the 2020-21 financial year. It is subject to change without notice. For more information, visit www.austliansuper.com.au. Issue of AustralianSuper (ASPS) for the 2020-21 financial year. AustralianSuper is a member of the ABC Group of Companies. ABC is a not-for-profit organisation. ABC is a member of the ABC Group of Companies.

Deciding who will receive your super and insurance money if the worst happens is an important decision for you.

Who can be nominated?

- You can nominate these people:
- your spouse (including de facto and same-sex relationships)
 - your dependent children (including adopted children)
 - inter-dependents (someone who relies on you and shares a close personal relationship where one or both of you provide for the financial and domestic support and personal care of the other)
 - other financial dependants (such as someone who relies on you financially)
 - your legal personal representative (who will be the executor or administrator of your estate).

Special conditions for children

Children aged between 18 and 25, who are financially dependent on you, may choose to receive your benefit as regular income payments until they reach 25 (unless your account runs out earlier). The remaining account balance will be paid out to them when they turn 25. If your child is permanently disabled, they may continue to receive regular payments until the money runs out, regardless of their age. Beneficiaries should consider seeking financial advice before making a decision.

What's paid if you die?

- If you die, the amount payable to your dependants, nominated beneficiaries, or legal personal representatives (executors of your estate) is made up of:
- your super account balance. This may include super contributions made by your employer or by you, and any amounts rolled over from other super funds (less any appropriate charges and taxes), and
 - any insurance amount which may be payable, the amount of which depends on your level of insurance cover with us and your age at the time of your death.

Our responsibility

When a member dies, we have a responsibility to pay out the member's account balance to the person or people entitled to it. We decide who to pay by following legislative guidelines and the AustralianSuper Trust Deed. We must decide who receives a payment within strict legal guidelines even if the decision is an unpopular one.

Decide what happens to your money

You have two options when deciding what happens to your money.

Non-binding nomination

A non-binding nomination isn't legally binding. We (AustralianSuper) are legally responsible for deciding who to make payments to after your death and must follow the laws about this. We'll consider all nominated beneficiaries, but we're not bound by the nominations if we decide we have an obligation under our Trust Deed and current legislation to pay someone else.

To make a non-binding nomination log into your account at austliansuper.com. You can change your nominations anytime.

Binding nomination

With binding nominations, you provide formal written direction to AustralianSuper to tell us who you want your account balance and death benefit paid to. As long as it's valid, your nomination is legally binding and we must follow it. This means that we must pay the people nominated as long as they qualify as a beneficiary.

A correctly completed binding nomination comes into effect from the date we accept it and expires three years from the date you sign the form. The expiry date of your binding nomination is shown on your member statement and we'll also send you a reminder before your nomination expires.

You can set up or change your binding nomination anytime. You'll need to complete a valid Binding death nomination form available at austliansuper.com/forms

What if my nomination is invalid?

- If your binding nomination is invalid we'll consider your wishes but use our discretion when paying out your account balance. Examples of an invalid nomination include:
- your nomination was made more than three years ago
 - your form was not correctly signed and witnessed

14. Gender Affirmation Leave

ADVANCED
Max. 4 points

We have an internal policy that ensures additional paid leave is available for employees who require time away to undertake or physically manage their gender affirmation.

Note: For full points, this leave must be in addition to the need to utilise annual leave, sick or generic personal leave.

For full points, please provide:

- (a) evidence of a paid leave entitlement (over and above annual leave, sick or generic personal leave) for individuals currently affirming their gender

Note: This leave is in addition to the need to use annual leave, sick or generic personal leave. It also goes beyond policy and forms part of the employee contract so cannot be removed without consultation with Union and employees.

A/ The extract provided below reference g, is an extract from the ABC Leave Guidelines and is an entitlement over and above annual leave, sick or generic personal leave for individuals affirming their gender. Employees can use this leave as and when they need to it is an entitlement for them to utilise. As mentioned in point c – this forms part of ABC Enterprise Agreement (EA) so is secured as part of their employment terms. This has drawn a great deal of attention at Government Senate Estimates (section 6/ Item 34 evidence) where ABC Managing Director, David Anderson was questioned over this. The ABC chose to make this as part of the employment agreement negotiating directly with the Union to secure into the EA this important leave option for employees.

Note the ABC EA is a public document and can be view here; <https://www.abc.net.au/cm/lb/12760902/data/abc-enterprise-agreement-2019-2020-a-data.pdf#ABC%20Enterprise%20Agreement%202019-2022>

B/ There is no documentation required and ABC process guideline states that individuals are not required to disclose medical information to the organisation.

C/ This leave is not at the discretion of the Manager as it forms part of the ABC Enterprise Agreement and is therefore available as standard HR policy. In fact, it forms part of the ABC employee contract, similar to that of annual leave or personal leave and forms part of the formally recognised ABC’s Leave entitlements which means that it cannot be removed or changed without Employee and Union consultation and agreement. This in effect secures this as part of employees contract and ensures the availability of this leave for employees.

Extract from ABC Leave Guideline and Policy

Clause g

(g) Gender Affirmation Leave

The ABC Enterprise Agreement refers to this form of leave as “Gender Transition Leave”. In these Guidelines, Gender Transition Leave will be referred to as “Gender Affirmation Leave”.

This paid leave is in addition to existing entitlements and may be taken as consecutive or single days, or as a portion of a day.

As set out in the ABC Enterprise Agreement, ‘Gender Transition’ means that your gender identity does not match your sex assigned at birth and you wish to adopt a gender identity that is different to the sex assigned at birth.

15. Gender Neutral Bathrooms and Facilities	Max. 4 points
We have (or are working towards) having ‘Gender Neutral’ or ‘All Gender’ bathrooms and/or facilities with clear and visible signage available to employees. Note: “Unisex” signage will not be given points for this question. We are seeking more inclusive language for inclusive signage. If you already have gender neutral or all gender signage, please provide:

- (a) evidence of a communication regarding where 'Gender Neutral' or 'All Gender' bathroom/facilities can be located*
- (b) evidence of clear and visible signage as it appears at the bathroom/facility location*

If you are still making progress towards this, please:

- (c) outline progress made and when you expect to have signage in place.*

If this is not possible for any reason, please provide:

- (d) evidence of any research or work that you have done in this area*
- (e) any means by which you have been able to accommodate trans, gender diverse and non-binary employees*

ABC has installed Gender Neutral bathroom signage in the Ultimo office and has plans to extend this to all offices Australia-wide where possible.

Evidence A/ This image here is the of the communication that was sent out to all employees - Australia wide Evidence B/ Within this is the image with the blue backing is the sign used for each bathroom stating all gendered bathroom. Also provided are some images of the bathrooms with the signs.

Evidence c/ The requirement to have additional bathrooms so as not to impact people with disability is on the agenda however at this stage building works is not possible. However the ABC 5 Year Strategic plan released in Sept 2020 will see a major property and facilities review over the coming period during which time exploration of more inclusive and accessibility building practices including bathrooms will be incorporated. Plans are underway and will be referenced as evidence in future AWEI submissions. For now the signage has been actioned in all suitable bathrooms in Ultimo offices and rolling out to offices Australia wide.

All gender toilets

As part of the ABC's commitment to our diverse workforce and fostering an inclusive workplace culture for employees and guests, we are proud to announce an "All Gender" sign will be added to the accessible toilets in the ABC premises around Australia.

This will ensure our workplace facilities are accessible for all employees and guests.

The ABC recognises that for some individuals the use of public toilets brings a high level of anxiety due to regularly being misgendered and directed to the 'correct' toilet.

The new signs will make it clear the toilets can be used by anyone who doesn't want to use the men's or women's toilets.

The initiative is in line with the ABC's 2019-2022 Diversity & Inclusion plan and is also part of our commitment as a participant in the Pride in Diversity project. It's a simple measure that sends a strong signal of inclusion both to ABC employees and our guests.

16. (Forms) Non-Binary Gender Options for Employees	Max. 2 points
We have audited and amended (or are in the process of auditing/amending) all internal documents and forms that collect gender information to include non-binary options and options for those who identify as trans or gender diverse (moving away from binary male/female, Mr. Ms., Mrs etc.).
For full points, please provide:
(a) a brief outline of progress of work to date
(b) options provided within changed documents if changes have been made
OR (c) evidence that you do not collect or have removed gender options or gendered information on your forms

A/ The ABC has completed an audit of our employee forms and updated and changed forms across the ABC removing the gender and titles because it isn't relevant and therefore making the experience for employees completing these forms more inclusive. The ABC has a broad workforce consisting of office-based employees and on-air talent such as presenters and actors. The two examples provided here help showcase the differing perspectives that we have addressed Ref 1/ The ABC Diversity and Inclusion EEO form that is an optional form for employee to complete that enables the ABC to understand our workforce representation and introduce specific programs and initiatives to help support increased representation where necessary. The Ref 2, Artist Engagement Form is issued to Actors to capture key information on the engagement arrangements with any irrelevant information removed and terminology updated to be inclusive of all people. This means that we don't ask for gender or titles as it is not required for the purpose of the form.

B/ The form Ref 1 is our EEO employee form, and we periodically invite people to update this information as we recognised that some identities such as disability may not have been relevant to the individual. We also recognise that some employees did not feel safe to complete the information but may change, given the work we continue to do to create a more inclusive and safe workplace.

Form ref 2/ does not capture this information, so we do not need to re-issue or invite people to request changes.

Since completing these forms, we understand that the leading practice has evolved to non-binary, we had this in the Gender definition however have flagged for changes in the next document review cycle.

As part of the ABC commitment to diversity and inclusion as evidenced by the D&I Plan 2019-22 which has a core focus on driving more diverse content for our audiences with a focus on LGBTIQ+ community members and again highlighted our commitment in the ABC 5 Year Plan launched Sept 2020.

This can be seen in a number of programs that went to air this year including; First Day, a new drama limited series about a transgender girl's first year of high school.

It walks through the process of navigating her first year of high school and essentially aims to normalise the experience by bringing this into peoples homes and therefore making it that bit easier for another transgender student going through the same stage of life.

Here is some examples of the types of evaluation that is carried out – this was for the ABC Instagram channel - ABC Queer, and was on the back of a pilot project which has continued due to the success.

In addition to these targets the ABC has incorporated within our EEO forms the option for employees to advise of their LGBTQ+ and Gender Diversity identity. Managing Director statement of commitment to D&I – this is available to review in the Appendix 5 page 3.

Message from our Managing Director

David Anderson

As the national broadcaster, we are required by our Charter to educate and entertain, contribute to a sense of national identity and reflect the cultural diversity of our nation. Representing the perspectives of Australia's many communities in our content and services, and in our workforce, are values we are passionate about.

We don't just care about this because it is the "right" thing to do: diversity and inclusion are strategic priorities for all media organisations. In order to be relevant, valued and loved by our audiences as we move towards 2022 and beyond, we must make content for all Australians, about all Australians.

The ABC values all its employees equally

We already are a diverse organisation and have much to celebrate. But we must continually challenge ourselves to ensure that diversity and inclusion are at the heart of our workforce, our content, and our way of life.

The Diversity and Inclusion Plan 2019-22 reaffirms our ongoing commitment to these goals. It provides a three-year strategic roadmap to help the ABC develop an inclusive culture throughout the Corporation and in our content and services, and sets out clear approaches and targets.

The ABC has joined forces with a broad range of organisations to work on diversity and inclusion initiatives, and we are a proud member of the Australian Screen Diversity and Inclusion Network.

This strategy must be driven from the top, with visible leadership and accountability. Ultimately, its goal is to make diversity and inclusion part of everything we do, with success depending on everyone at the ABC.

As Managing Director, I am proud to lead the way in this vital area.

David Anderson
Managing Director

The ABC must look and sound like modern Australia, and include all Australians in what we do.

Extract page 13

The ABC has selected only 5 diversity areas which our strategic plan focuses on, one of which is LGBTIQ+

Our focus areas of diversity

To enable us to make some real, sustainable and accelerated change with the resources we have available, this Plan will focus on five key diversity areas:

- Cultural and linguistic diversity (CALD)
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people
- Disability
- Gender
- LGBTIQ+

Each group forms a focus for the ABC and will be subject to delivering as part of our 'big ticket' initiatives for 2019-22.

Given we are into the second year of the plan already we have begun delivering against these items.

All with a focus on LGBTIQ+ Community which includes; the mentoring program, Recruiting for diversity, building the sponsored employee networks, making the workplace more accessible, training investment, on-air tracking of LGBTIQ+ community representation. It has been so encouraging to see the change in peoples attitudes and experiences with more LGBTIQ+ on-air talent feeling safe to be their whole selves and share this with audiences.

Our “big-ticket” initiatives for 2019-22 include:

1. Creating pathways into the ABC for those under-represented in the media industry
2. Recruiting for diversity
3. Providing internal mobility opportunities
4. An inclusive mentoring program
5. Monitoring and reporting the diversity of our workforce
6. Ensuring our leaders are engaged and accountable for diversity and inclusion
7. ABC-sponsored employee network groups
8. Diversity and inclusion training program
9. Gender pay equity review
10. Workplace accessibility review
11. Tracking and measuring diversity in our content
12. New commissioning diversity guidelines
13. Diverse on-air talent identification and management
14. A central database of on-air contributors able to represent all corners of the Australian community

A key strategic call out over and above the 14 'big ticket' initiatives outlined above is also the AWEI which highlights the ABC commitment to ensure that we are adopting LGBTIQ+ leading inclusion practices. It is very much an index that the business really invests in to create a more inclusive workplace for LGBTIQ+ employees and audiences.

Increased level of awareness and support for our diversity and inclusion objectives and targets among our employees (employee feedback/engagement surveys) ENGs are established and contribute to diversity and inclusion priorities and change Retention and turnover rates are equivalent for all employees regardless of their diversity status. Participation in Diversity & Inclusion training, with specific targets to be determined by the DiSC throughout the Plan. Participants feel able to apply learnings in their day-to-day work environment. Gender pay review informs specific actions to address any pay gaps. Our key workplace culture initiatives

A. STRENGTHENING OUR LEADERSHIP ENGAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTABILITY

In order to succeed, this Plan must be driven from the top. Without visible leadership engagement and accountability there's a risk diversity and inclusion will be considered a secondary "nice to have" rather than the strategic priority it is. This Plan includes a leadership commitment and a dedicated structure to ensure top-down accountability for diversity and inclusion outcomes (see section on Governance, Roles and Responsibilities). Furthermore, its goals and targets will be reflected in the annual, measurable KPIs of the ABC's Leadership and their executive teams, and cascaded down to all levels of the ABC. Where possible, to assess the inclusiveness of our workplace we will also seek external benchmarking, such as the Australian Workplace Equality Index or the Australian Network on Disability's Access and Inclusion Index.

B. ABC-SPONSORED EMPLOYEE NETWORK GROUPS (ENGs)

Our ENGs provide employees who share similar backgrounds, needs or interests a platform for networking, ideas sharing and collaboration. They are also "safe spaces" where individuals from under-represented groups can find support and be themselves. ENGs take the lead on specific initiatives, such as awareness-raising events, and influence change by shining a light on things we can do better and finding ways to improve.

Our ENGs will be sponsored by our most senior leaders and employee participation is actively encouraged and supported by managers and team leaders across the Corporation. Under this Plan, we will continue to support and celebrate the work of ABC Pride and the recently launched ABC Multicultural Network as well as launching and supporting a new group focused on accessibility in early 2020.

Case study: ABC Pride

ABC Pride was created in 2017 to promote and encourage LGBTQI+ inclusion in all aspects of the ABC. The group is chaired by Head of Operations Manda Hatter, who was named as one of the Deloitte/Google 50 Outstanding LGBTI Leaders of 2018. The group is open to all ABC employees and meets monthly to develop and implement initiatives that support the representation and participation of LGBTQI+ people in ABC content, services and the workforce. ABC Pride has grown to include 24 active committee members and hundreds more supporters across the ABC. The group has achieved many goals, including organising popular, well-attended events and discussion forums; supporting LGBTQI+ employees during the 2017 marriage equality survey; and advocating for LGBTQI+-friendly internal policies and practices. The ABC Pride strategy was launched in June 2019 at the ABC Gayla event.

Extract of optional EEO form that employees are encouraged to complete with information regarding the sexuality and gender. Once this form reaches critical mass which we expect to be later this year we will then introduce an additional target of LGBTIQ+ workforce representation at the ABC. This is already in place for other diversity groups that form part of the government EEO Act such as women and Indigenous. The LGBTIQ+ Community does not form part of the act, despite this we see the LGBTIQ+ Community a core diversity group and therefore have included this in our data collection.

Collection of Diversity and Inclusion Data

The ABC promotes equity, diversity and inclusion in employment for designated groups in accordance with the Equal Employment Opportunity (Commonwealth Authorities) Act 1987:

- Women;
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples;

The ABC has addressed this requirement in three components; Firstly we have the ABC Pride network group – which is promoted through the intranet site and diversity action groups (which have been set up in each division and include a combination of Leaders and employees), other Employee network groups established for Disability, Culturally diverse and Indigenous. The ABC has also set up a Diversity & Inclusion Standing Committee (DISC) (made up of Divisional Diversity Leads representing across the ABC, ENG Leads) these leaders represent the C Suite and are selected for their capability to influence changes. Secondly we have the ABC Pride intranet page where the tab ‘About Us’ provide employees with information about the network. Manda involvement also ensure that the network provides active consultation and support to other DISC members for guidance and advice on matters associated with LGBTQ+ Community.

Each DISC is connected with a Division who has a Diversity Action Plan and this in-turn drives their D&I deliverables. These Diversity Leads are part of the DISC who are accountable for driving towards a more inclusive ABC.

Below is the DISC Purpose and objectives outlined;

Purpose of the DISC (Diversity & Inclusion Standing Committee)

The purpose of the DISC is to create a body of diversity leads representing all ABC divisions, employee network groups and the Bonner Committee to lead the development, implementation and review of the ABC's Indigenous, diversity and inclusion strategy.

This will include:

- Escalating issues to the ABC Leadership Team as appropriate when the organisation is not meeting diversity goals and targets (content, workforce and culture)
- Educating and supporting staff in relation to the ABC's Indigenous, diversity and inclusion goals where needed
- Creating alignment, collaboration and clarity across divisions on diversity work
- Championing and role-modelling diversity and inclusion practice
- Advising and informing the LT
- Increasing awareness of diversity
- Reviewing the current D&I plan (when appropriate) and developing new strategy
- Supporting the Bonner Committee to review the Elevate RAP and develop new Indigenous strategy as needed.
- Ensuring Editorial and Content Director meetings include a standing agenda item for diversity & inclusion

ABC recognised in LGBTIQ+ Inclusion Awards

The ABC has been awarded a Bronze badge in the 2020 Australian Workplace Equality Index (AWEI) LGBTIQ+ Inclusion Awards.

The badge recognises that the ABC has substantially increased the visibility of people of diverse sexualities and genders – creating a more inclusive place to work and more diverse content for our audiences. Bronze status represents national and industry-wide recognition of the ABC's progress.

The Best Video and Audio Meeting Quality You...

The definitive national benchmark on LGBTQ workplace inclusion, the AWEI measures the impact of inclusion initiatives, driving best practice while improving workplace diversity and inclusion across Australia.

It comprises the largest and only national employee survey designed to gauge the overall impact of inclusion initiatives on organisational culture as well as identifying and non-identifying employees.

Now in its tenth year, the AWEI includes submissions from across all sectors, including government, IT and consulting firms, media organisations, higher education and engineering.

Manda Hatter, Chair of ABC Pride, said the ABC had substantially increased the visibility of people of diverse sexualities and genders, making people feel safer to be their authentic selves and allowing everyone to bring their whole selves to work.

"We have developed a strategic plan to guide the work of ABC Pride, and a number of other pieces of work – for example a language guide to support improved reporting on content that relates to sexuality and gender diversity," she said. "Bronze status... is testament to the work of many to improve LGBTIQ+ inclusion across the ABC. I know many of our staff can see and feel the difference this work makes – across our regions or cities, in whatever state or territory you live and work in."

Rebelah Donaldson, Chief People Officer (ABC Pride Executive Sponsor) said the award showed significant progress for the ABC. "Our achievement is demonstrative of the great things that can be done when a staff-led group and People & Culture combine their will, resources and energy to make change. Now for Gold..."

The ABC is committed to LGBTQI+ diversity and inclusion and supporting employees of diverse sexualities, gender identities and those with intersex variations. The ABC has been supporting existing and perspective employees by creating a more inclusive culture where everyone can be their authentic selves and reach their full potential. In recognition of its efforts the ABC was awarded a Bronze medal in the 2020 Australian Workplace Equality Index (AWEI) LGBTQI+ inclusion Awards. The ABC also marched in the Mardi Gras 2020 for the first time since the parade began in 1978.

The ABC understands that for some people with a lived experience of transgender, the recruitment processes can be daunting. We understand the unique challenges and concerns that individuals may experience. You can contact Siubhan Watt from the Indigenous, Diversity & Inclusion team via email genderdiverse@abc.net.au or phone 02-8333 2348 with any questions regarding the recruitment process.

What success will look like?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Diversity and Inclusion is actively championed by the ABC leadership as a strategic priority and this is reflected in our policies, work practices and decision making. Increased level of awareness and support for our diversity and inclusion objectives and targets among our employees (employee feedback/engagement surveys) ENGs are established and contribute to diversity and inclusion priorities and change Retention and turnover rates are equivalent for all employees regardless of their diversity status. Participation in Diversity & Inclusion training, with specific targets to be determined by the DISC throughout the Plan. Participants feel able to apply learnings in their day-to-day work environment. Gender pay review informs specific actions to address any pay gaps. Participation in workplace diversity awards (e.g. AWEI, AND's Access and Inclusion Index, etc.) with progressive improvement in performance score overtime.

And the D&I plans outlining the launch of the ABC Pride strategy in June 2019.

Our key workplace culture initiatives

A. STRENGTHENING OUR LEADERSHIP ENGAGEMENT AND ACCOUNTABILITY

In order to succeed, this Plan must be driven from the top. Without visible leadership engagement and accountability there's a risk diversity and inclusion will be considered a secondary "nice to have" rather than the strategic priority it is. This Plan includes a leadership commitment and a dedicated structure to ensure top-down accountability for diversity and inclusion outcomes (see section on Governance, Roles and Responsibilities). Furthermore, its goals and targets will be reflected in the annual, measurable KPIs of the ABC's Leadership and their executive teams, and cascaded down to all levels of the ABC. Where possible, to assess the inclusiveness of our workplace we will also seek external benchmarking, such as the Australian Workplace Equality Index or the Australian Network on Disability's Access and Inclusion Index.

B. ABC-SPONSORED EMPLOYEE NETWORK GROUPS (ENGs)

Our ENGs provide employees who share similar backgrounds, needs or interests a platform for networking, ideas sharing and collaboration. They are also "safe spaces" where individuals from under-represented groups can find support and be themselves. ENGs take the lead on specific initiatives, such as awareness-raising events, and influence change by shining a light on things we can do better and finding ways to improve.

Our ENGs will be sponsored by our most senior leaders and employee participation is actively encouraged and supported by managers and team leaders across the Corporation. Under this Plan, we will continue to support and celebrate the work of ABC Pride and the recently launched ABC Multicultural Network as well as launching and supporting a new group focused on accessibility in early 2020.

Case study: ABC Pride

ABC Pride was created in 2017 to promote and encourage LGBTQI+ inclusion in all aspects of the ABC. The group is chaired by Head of Operations Manda Hatter, who was named as one of the Deloitte/Google 50 Outstanding LGBTI Leaders of 2018. The group is open to all ABC employees and meets monthly to develop and implement initiatives that support the representation and participation of LGBTQI+ people in ABC content, services and the workforce. ABC Pride has grown to include 24 active committee members and hundreds more supporters across the ABC. The group has achieved many goals, including organising popular, well-attended events and discussion forums; supporting LGBTQI+ employees during the 2017 marriage equality survey; and advocating for LGBTQI+-friendly internal policies and practices. The ABC Pride strategy was launched in June 2019 at the ABC Gayla event.

OUR AMBITION

ABC Pride is an employee-led group providing Education, Awareness and Support for our staff.

ABC Pride aims to create an inclusive work environment where our people can be their authentic selves and reach their full potential.

ABC Pride signifies inclusion and invites all ABC employees to be part of and support this ambition.

INVESTING IN AUDIENCES

1. Creating extraordinary relevant and valued content

Through a new awards nomination platform open to all ABC staff;

- a) Best 'Community Member' (working title) – Who made the biggest difference to the community at the ABC
- b) Best Ally – Non-LGBTQI staff member who most supported the community
- c) Best Content – For content that changed the conversation around LGBTQI issues

2. An outstanding audience experience

- By promoting diversity and inclusion on and off screen
- Through Diversity and Inclusion training programs available to all staff, including content makers

3. Reaching and Engaging more people more frequently in the most relevant way

- By collecting data from our staff to ensure our internal diversity targets are reflective of all Australians
- By celebrating diversity days like IDAHOBIT and Wear it Purple

4. Building a great place to work

- By extending the ABC's mentoring program to include LGBTQI mentors
- By offering resources specific to LGBTQI staff through our Intranet page
- By engaging Champions across the ABC to reach and support all our staff in Metro and Regional areas
- By reviewing our policies and updating terminology to be more inclusive, including offering gender transition leave as a proposed clause in the EA
- By introducing a staff feedback form to better understand how to support our staff through the Pride group's activities

WHY?

Because it is good for our people and good for business

We believe in equal opportunity

We value inclusion

We value respect

We believe a person's identity and sexual orientation is an intrinsic part of who they are and we are committed to creating a working environment that supports and embraces our differences.

Supporting our LGBTQI community will:

- Help make the ABC a better place to work (ABC Investing in Audiences Strategy – Great Place to Work)
- Help us recruit and retain the best – make us an employer of choice.
- Help us make better content by leveraging that diversity (ABC Investing in Audiences Strategy - making extraordinary content)

Recently published research noted LGBTI and supporter employees at inclusive companies (compared to those that have a negative attitude to LGBTI employees) are:

- significantly more likely to say they are proud to work for their employer (84% v 68%);
- more likely to "go the extra mile" for company success (84% v 73%)

^ Source: Harvard Business Review, February 2016

WHAT IS SUCCESS?

1. Visible and vocal support for our LGBTQI community from our leaders.

Support could be in many forms including communications and presentations, social media sharing, attendance at LGBTI events, prioritising LGBTI on the agenda of important forums.

2. Qualitative feedback

From our LGBTQI community that says we are moving towards our ambition.

3. Implementation of this strategy

Including key initiatives like the LGBTQI mentoring program, the metro champion program, policy updates, IDAHOBIT & Wear it Purple Day, and an annual Gayla event.

4. Significant improvement in AWEI score

Continual improvement in the Australian Workplace Equality Index

The AWEI now stands as the definitive national benchmark on LGBTI workplace inclusion and comprises the largest and only national employee survey designed to gauge the overall impact of inclusion initiatives on organisational culture as well as identifying and non-identifying employees. The Index drives best practice in Australia and sets a comparative benchmark for Australian employers across all sectors.

Memberships

The ABC continues to be a member of several key national diversity organisations, including the Diversity Council of Australia, Australian Network on Disability, Pride in Diversity, Screen Diversity Inclusion Network, the NSW Equal Employment Opportunity Practitioners' Association (NEEOPA) and the Asian Leadership Project. These memberships give access to advice and expertise on external equity, diversity and inclusion best practices and assist the Corporation in keeping up to date. The Asian Leadership Project is an initiative dedicated to advancing Asian and culturally diverse talent into leadership positions. As part of its membership, diverse staff from across Australia have attended masterclasses, special events, career coaching and mentoring sessions.

LGBTQI+

The ABC continues to focus on LGBTQI+ inclusion. While a target for LGBTQI+ representation in the workforce has not been set, the ABC's recruitment data now includes tracking job applications from LGBTQI+ applicants and the conversion to successful hires.

ABC Pride

The ABC Pride employee network is now in its third year and 2020 has been its most eventful and successful year yet.

The network is Chaired by Head of Operations Manda Hatter and meets monthly with staff from across many teams within the ABC. The focus is on continuing to improve inclusiveness at the ABC. Throughout 2019-2020, the ABC Pride network successfully extended to include state and territory capital cities, as well as regional areas, including Alice Springs, Port Pirie and Kalgoorlie. The Committee includes streams— People, Events, Communications, Mardi Gras and Champions for State and Regional locations.

Celebrating events and significant days

Mardi Gras

Annabel Crabb and Craig Phillips at the 2020 Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras.

The ABC was proud to participate in the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras parade for the first time in the history of the event. The annual Mardi Gras theme 'What Matters' aimed to celebrate those at the forefront of the fight for equality.

Among the 60 staff members participating were well-known figures, including Fran Kelly, Patricia Karvelas and Jeremy Fernandez. They were accompanied on the float by ABC Managing Director, David Anderson. ABC Chair Ita Buttrose attended the parade to offer her support.

The ABC float was self-funded by ABC Pride (the ABC's LGBTIQ+ employee network group) and showcased hundreds of ABC employees represented through pre-recorded video played on the side of the ABC vehicle. The ABC's participation in the Mardi Gras highlights that the ABC embraces and supports diversity for all in its workforce.

James Taylor SBS MD, Patricia Kerville, and David Anderson.

AWEI award

A host of efforts and activities were recognised in 2020 with the awarding of a Bronze Medal at the Australian Workplace Equality Index (AWEI). This award measures the impact of inclusion initiatives and drives best practice and improved workplace diversity across Australia. Now in its tenth year, hundreds of organisations participate in the AWEI across all sectors. This year marked the first time that the ABC won a medal.

The award signifies that the ABC had substantially increased the visibility of people of diverse sexualities and genders – creating a more inclusive place to work and more diverse content for its audiences. Bronze status represents national and industry-wide recognition of the ABC's progress.

34. Executive Advocacy

Within the assessed calendar year, Senior Executive(s) within our organisation have:

- a) advocated for LGBTQ inclusion at an executive level externally amongst peers - Senate Estimates
- b) advocated for LGBTQ inclusion at an executive level internally amongst peers; or
- c) attended at least two of the Pride in Diversity Executive Allies Forums within the assessed year

Please provide evidence for one of the above.

If you can provide evidence for two or more of the above, please add the additional item/s to the ADDITIONAL WORK section at the end of this submission.

A/ Our Managing Director, David Anderson has externally advocated for LGBTQ+, in particular the transgender community in the Senate Estimates that were held in November last year.

The Senate Estimates provides an opportunity for government official who form Senate Committees to table questions about use of government dollars being spent in the form of business operations. This therefore requires David to attend a Q&A Session with who put to him a broad range of questions regarding the ABC's operations, including the approach to LGBTQ+ Inclusion. On this particular occasion David was asked about the ABC Enterprise Agreement in particular the Transgender Leave for Gender Affirmation. David expertly responded to the Senator always holding the line that the leave is valid and necessary to support employees affirming their gender. The questioning extended over sometime, as outlined below in the script. There was a sense of pride and appreciation for the manner in which David managed this line of question.

The recording is scripted below for your reference.

Gender Transition Leave raised at Senate Estimates

ABC Managing Director, David Anderson was questioned about the introduction of Gender Transition Leave at Senate Estimates on October 21.

As you may know the ABC's Enterprise Agreement (2019-2022) contains the following provisions.

Gender Transition Leave

a. An employee (other than a casual employee) that identifies as transgender and who is undertaking a Gender Transition, will have access to:

- i. up to 10 days' paid Gender Transition Leave, which counts as service for all purposes; and*
- ii. up to 12 months' unpaid Gender Transition Leave. Unpaid Gender Transition Leave does not count as service.*

b. The paid_ leave provided in clause 41.6.1 a.i is in addition to existing entitlements and may be taken as consecutive or single days, or as a portion of a day.

c. 'Gender Transition' means that you identify as transgender (in that your gender identity does not match your birth sex) and you wish to adopt a gender identity that is different to your birth sex.

An employee may be requested to provide suitable supporting documentation for any miscellaneous paid leave granted under this clause.

Miscellaneous paid leave will count as service for all purposes.

Under questioning from South Australian Liberal Senator, Alex Antic, David Anderson said, "We are recognising what we need to do as an inclusive employer that is recognising the diversity that we have in our community and benchmarking ourselves against other organisations and agencies."

And

Another senate estimates where David Anderson was asked about the ABC Pride float at Senate Estimates and confirmed to the Senate, "It was an ABC truck that we allowed them to use, but there was no public funds spent on that float. The money was raised by the ABC Pride staff-led group that did this out of hours, they raised the funds to be able to have the float"

David was also asked about the public criticism a number of high profile staff have received on social media. "Senator, I'll just state that we always support our staff. When you are the public broadcaster, and you are there on social media you are vulnerable to people saying horrible things. That happened, yes that did happen after the weekend. Of course, we put support around our staff. And it's unfortunate that this happens. For the ABC, this was our first float in Mardi Gras in forty-two years. So while we covered it, and then SBS covered it (and I don't know how it happened that it switched from the ABC to SBS) but it's been quite difficult for the ABC to have a float in there. Out of 200 floats, there are many government agencies that are represented in Mardi Gras, and this was the first one. Very proud of the ABC Pride group having a float in Mardi Gras, and Ita and I were both there and cheered them on, and it was terrific."

ABC recognised in LGBTIQ+ Inclusion Awards

Posted 7th July 2020

The ABC has been awarded a Bronze badge in the 2020 Australian Workplace Equality Index (AWEI) LGBTIQ+ Inclusion Awards.

The badge recognises that the ABC has substantially increased the visibility of people of diverse sexualities and genders – creating a more inclusive place to work and more diverse content for our audiences. Bronze status represents national and industry-wide recognition of the ABC's progress.

The definitive national benchmark on LGBTQ workplace inclusion, the AWEI measures the impact of inclusion initiatives, driving best practice while improving workplace diversity and inclusion across Australia.

It comprises the largest and only national employee survey designed to gauge the overall impact of inclusion initiatives on organisational culture as well as identifying and non-identifying employees.

Now in its tenth year, the AWEI includes submissions from across all sectors, including government, IT and consulting firms, media organisations, higher education and engineering.

Manda Hatter, Chair of ABC Pride, said the ABC had substantially increased the visibility of people of diverse sexualities and genders, making people feel safer to be their authentic selves and allowing everyone to bring their whole selves to work.

"We have developed a strategic plan to guide the work of ABC Pride, and a number of other pieces of work – for example a language guide to support improved reporting on content that relates to sexuality and gender diversity," she said. "Bronze status... is testament to the work of many to improve LGBTIQ+ inclusion across the ABC. I know many of our staff can see and feel the difference this work makes – across our regions (cities, in v h x e f r, s t e u e r t e r r a r y x i u e a n d w r n ' n).

Rebekah Donaldson, Chief People Officer (ABC Pride Executive Sponsor) said the award showed significant progress for the ABC. "Our achievement is demonstrative of the great things that can be done when a staff-led group and People & Culture combine their will, resources and energy to make change. Now for Gold..."

Up until recently the tracking of this information was not available and it has been through partnership endeavours such as this that it is possible. Note: On-air talent privacy will be subject to the necessary Australian Privacy protections and there will be options to self-select out of the reporting. This initiative will lead the way in driving a media industry to start tracking and increasing their diverse representation including that of the LGBTIQ+ Community.

The Everyone Project

This week the Australian Screen Industry launched the first stage of its diversity tracker called The Everyone Project \(TEP\).

TEP has been developed by the Screen Diversity and Inclusion Network (SDIN), which the ABC is a member of, along with other major Australian media and screen agencies and industry organisations including all the free-to-air broadcasters, pay television, AFTRS, Screen Australia and Free TV Australia.

The aim of the initiative is to track and foster diversity in all Australian screen productions – including here at the ABC. Our participation in TEP is in addition to our existing content diversity tracking within the ABC and enhances our approach to this important issue.

From now on, commissioned screen content – with the exception of news and sport - will be registered in TEP. Those working on each program (both talent and crew) will be invited to self-identify on a set of characteristics. The information collected will be used to create benchmarks to track diversity right across the industry.

All in-house ABC productions will be asked to participate but most of the input will come from our co-production partners.

For more information please contact E&S Head of Content Investment & Policy, Sacha Gregson.

Ensuring that the use of language across ABC content makers is consistent with the recommendations from leading advocacy bodies. This is achieved by developing an editorial advance on LGBTIQ+ issues. With regular reviews and updated conducted on the content of this document.

The ABC Pride in consultation with our Editorial Policy team has developed Editorial Policies and Resources for Journalists and Content Makers for when they are reporting and portraying sexual orientation, gender identity and intersex status in ABC Content.

This information has a details guidance note which has been informed by a number of resources outlined below and in consultation with our ABC Pride network which include § 47E(c) who also brings their expertise and insight developed from their work on ABC Queer Instagram channel and their involvement with Twenty-Ten.

§ 47G(1)(a)

The resources also extends to identifying on-air talent which means that there is an increased visible representation of LGBTIQ+ Community in the media.

Item 39 Community Event	Additional 15/ The pandemic turned our workforce to lockdown overnight on 22 March 2020, a very unsettling time where we saw a lot of momentum in different programs and initiatives stall. This was not the case with ABC Pride, they got on the front foot and sending this survey out on the 30/04 (4 weeks after the lock-down started). This information informed how they ran events for the rest of 2020 which has been more inclusive than anyone could have imagined. This was attributed to the online appeal to employees all over Australia and the exception efforts the network went to ensuring the online events were engaging, educational, fun, professional and met the needs of the network.

Item 39 Day of Awareness	Given the lack of movement the ABC Pride did an online event teaching all ABC members the Mardi Gras Parade march. With an overwhelming number of employees tuning into learn the dance. And several other events already mentioned elsewhere in this submission. Whilst I am not entirely sure where this sits for additional points but it is an indication of the dedication and ability collaborate and bring together community to support one another. Additional 16/ Pro—bono work ABC Chair, Manda Hatter volunteering to join the s 47E(c) to help advisor on future nominees.

Further to Manda's email connecting us, we have had to move the date of the virtual Northern Territory day of LGBTQ inclusion. The new date is Thursday 5th November 2020.

I have attached the flyer with registration details for the different sessions, all of which ABC employees can attend, as you are Pride in Diversity members.

I wonder if we could catch up prior to the day to talk about a short interview on who we are and what we do and how we assist in organisations becoming more LGBTQ inclusive?

Looking forward to speaking with you.

Regards Chris

This week we're going on a daring dog rescue, talking to dolphins and looking out for our friends on Wear It Purple Day..

St Bernard's are really big working dogs, some are trained for a very special job – rescuing people from snowy mountains! But this story is about one St Bernard who ended up needing her very own mountain rescue. Daisy was going for a hike with her owners up Scafell Pike. Scafell Pike is a mountain in the country England and it's a pretty steep climb! Daisy made it up to the top okay, but on the way down, her legs started to hurt, and she couldn't walk anymore. The weather was getting worse, and Daisy and her owners needed to get down from the mountain. So, they called for help and before long, sixteen volunteers came to the rescue! It took them five hours to carry Daisy down the mountain, safe and sound. The rescuers say that they've helped lots of big dogs over the years, but none as big, or as friendly, as Daisy! It's a good reminder that if you're ever in an emergency, calling for help is the best idea. If you're not sure what to do, start by talking to a grown up and you can make an emergency plan together.

Less boats have been out on the water lately. It means that underwater creatures have been enjoying a bit of peace and quiet. It's also given scientists a special chance to learn the language of a rare type of dolphin. Burrunan dolphins are a type of bottlenose dolphin that only live in Victoria, around Port Phillip Bay and Gippsland Lakes. You can't find them anywhere else in the whole world! Burrunan is the name given to these dolphins, by the Boonwurrung people of the Kulin Nation, the First Peoples of the area. Scientists have been listening in to the Burrunan dolphins, using special underwater microphones called hydrophones and these scientists have discovered that each Burrunan dolphin has its own name too – a unique whistle that no other dolphin uses. They think it's the dolphins' way of introducing themselves. Scientists are hoping to learn all the names of the Burrunan dolphins that live in the Gippsland Lakes, and find out more about their special language.

The 28th of August is Wear It Purple Day! Wear It Purple Day is all about showing your support for young people from the LGBTQIA+ community. The letters LGBTQIA+ stand for lots of people, who express who they are, and who they love in many ways. LGBTQIA+ people are sometimes called rainbow people because the rainbow flag is a symbol of pride. The rainbow flag shows how we can all be different, and stand together, just like the colours of a rainbow. Sometimes, rainbow people feel bright and colourful on the inside but might be afraid to show it on the outside. That's because sometimes people are mean to others who stand out. This is called bullying and it's a big problem. Bullying or teasing someone for being themselves isn't fair and you're right, it can make people feel sad and like they're on their own. That's why Wear It Purple Day is so important. It tells rainbow kids and their families that they are celebrated and safe to be who they are.

ABC Pride at Fair Day! A fabulous day full of inclusion, acceptance and fun!

Everyone who helped on our stall were volunteers who went over and above to ensure that the presence of ABC was felt and made it a genuinely awesome day!

ABC Employees made it a really successful day promoting awareness of ABC as an LGBTIQ+ inclusive employer with a special call out to § 47E(c) for being our wonderful § 47E(c) and organising the day with the fabulous § 47E(c) and § 47E(c) for helping organise and being there all day for bumping in to bumping out at the end.

Our wonderful ABC employees who volunteered - we simply could not have done it without them!

And ABC Senior Leadership team, our wonderful § 47E(c) who gave up her time as a volunteer and § 47E(c), who was there to support and pitch in and promote the ABC too.

All profits went towards funding the ABC Pride 2020 Mardi Gras float.

After months of planning and fundraising, and after weeks of rehearsals, the ABC marching group of employees made history: for the first time ever, there's been an official ABC presence in the Sydney Gay and Lesbian Mardi Gras Parade.

The float was led by some well known ABC faces - s 47E(c) - as well as the ABC's Managing Director, David Anderson. ABC Chair, Ita Buttrose also came along to support us.

Behind the float, we had an awesome group of 60 ABC staff, wearing rainbow colours, in synchronised dance routine to the tune of some well known ABC themes from television and radio.
