As we close out World Pride Month, yesterday we held a staff panel discussion on queerness and cultural identity, with SBS team members very generously sharing their own experiences and struggles with a broad staff cohort.

Thanks to Julia Frolov, Laurie Lawira, Fatima Mawas and Matty Mills who spoke with pride, supported by the expert facilitation of Ricardo Gonçalves.

This staff event was hosted by our employee advisory group SBS Pride and Allies who are dedicated to making SBS a safe and inclusive workplace for everyone.

At SBS we believe that everyone should be able to bring their whole self to work and we're proud to host staff events like this to embolden LGBTQI+ voices, and to give allies an opportunity to listen and learn.

Yesterday, SBS offices in Melbourne and Sydney joined together in purple to support and celebrate the diversity of young people in the LGBTIQ+ community.

Following this year's theme, "Write Your Story," SBS staff shared advice to their younger selves, promoting personal expression and individuality for young people.

Thanks to all who celebrated with SBS Pride & Allies, helping create a safe, empowering space for queer youth.

Yesterday, SBS Pride and Allies screened an exclusive first look at the riveting and witty new series, While The Men Are Away, premiering 27 September on SBS On Demand.

With special guests, co-creator and writer Kim Wilson and Jana Zvendeniuk, who plays the character Esther, taking us behind the scenes of the series, discussing 1940s vernacular, working with a female film crew and the importance of diverse storytelling. Thanks to our MC, Fatima Mawas, and Ravi Moerman from Pride and Allies for hosting the event.

The eight-part series will be available to stream free on SBS On Demand with double episodes to air at 8:30 pm on SBS each Wednesday.
