

Free and confidential counselling services:

At SBS we work closely with our Employee Assistance Provider, Converge International, to provide access to a confidential specialist LGBTIQ+ support counselling services. We recognise there are many issues impacting the LGBTIQ+ community which require specialist expertise and understanding. Speak with a specialist counsellor and access support across issues specific to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transsexual, Intersex, Queer or Questioning people. You can also discuss referral to specialised services and access to general information and resources.

Become a member or get involved as an ally

Please email s22 @sbs.com.au asking to be added to our membership email and get invited to our events, forums and get-togethers. You can also request a rainbow lanyard, pin and stickers at Sydney and Melbourne front desks.

We've also developed this SBS Allies Guide which we encourage all SBS staff to review and think about how they can contribute to making SBS the most inclusive place to work.

Need to have a confidential chat with someone?

If you're looking for advice or just someone to talk to, we have a dedicated Pride & Allies contact person, a trained LGBTQ+ grievance officer and confidential counselling and support services available.
